

Calling all Indigenous people aged 15-18!

Are you curious about a career in the Army? Get ready to embark on an adventure that could shape your future! Join us for Exercise First Look, the Army's Indigenous Flagship Work Experience Program, designed exclusively for you!

Explore a Future in the Army with Exercise First Look!

Program Overview:

- Who? Indigenous students aged 15-18
- What? A five-day residential work experience program
- Where & When:

Army Logistics Training Centre, Bandiana VIC

Dates: 7-11 October 2024

Location: Gaza Ridge Barracks, Bandiana VIC

Contact: 0407 255 692 or 03 9200 1107

Applications close: 28 July 2024

Simpson Barracks, Macleod VIC

Dates: 25-29 November 2024

Location: Greensborough Road, Macleod VIC

Contact: 0429 526 942 or 03 9200 1107

Applications close: 18 August 2024

What to Expect:

- Real army life - Dive into the daily activities of an Army Soldier/Officer.
- Active learning - Engage in physical training, field craft, and team-building exercises.
- Career insights - Learn about various roles within the Army and the recruitment process.
- Practical experience - Participate in drills, leadership skills development, and more!

All-Inclusive Experience

All costs, including accommodation, airfares, and meals during the program, are covered by the Army! Just bring your enthusiasm and readiness to learn.

Interested?

Don't miss this unique opportunity to see if a career in the Army is right for you!

1. Talk to your Careers Counsellor at school about applying.
2. Visit <https://defencecareers.nga.net.au> > VIC > Exercise First Look
3. Complete the online application with responses to the assessment criteria.
4. Submit your application before the closing date!

Questions?

For any inquiries or further information, contact vic.workexperience@defence.gov.au